

2023 FALL General Scholarships

Fall H.O.P.E. Scholarships

We are just thrilled to be able to give out not two, but four HOPE scholarships this semester, as we did not have any to award this spring. Just take a look at these phenomenal scholars and you'll understand why we just LOVE this program and how we are investing in the future of our community, through these young adults.

Brooke Baeza

My name is Brooke Baeza and I am currently attending the University of New Mexico as a Political Science major with the aspiration to go onto obtaining a master's degree. My focus for my future is attending law school and becoming a practicing attorney in areas such as civil rights and immigration. Born and raised in Rio Rancho, New Mexico, I am thrilled to continue to call this state home for the next steps in my academic career, go Lobos!

Ilyana Gonzales

My name is Ilyana Gonzales, I am 17 years old. I attended and graduated from St. Pius X High School. My parents are Leah and Frank Gonzales, I have an older brother and sister. I participated in Varsity Basketball and Volleyball throughout my high school career. I was named 1st Team All State, 1st Team All District and 1st Team All Metro. I also played in the All Star Red vs. Green game for Volleyball. My personal goal is to become a successful business leader within my community. I am so grateful and excited to further my educational career at New Mexico State University. Go Aggies!!!

Meghan Stone

Meghan Stone recently graduated from St. Pius X with a cumulative GPA of 4.58, in the Top 10% of her class.

Meghan was involved in the National Honor Society and the “Société Honoraire de Français”. Additionally, Meghan volunteered as a figure skating instructor for her local club and as a singer in her church choir, throughout high school. In addition to volunteer work, she was the captain of her synchronized skating team, a three-time

All-State choir member, and is currently working toward her Silver Level Moves in the Field in figure skating. Meghan plans to attend the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in the fall to study Political Science and French. She hopes to go to law school and become an attorney in the future.

Olivia Lent-Koop

Olivia is a 2023 graduated senior from Cleveland High School. While at Cleveland, Olivia maintained a 4.25 GPA while also participating on the dance team, musical theatre productions, National Honor Society, and Poetry Out Loud. She is going to be attending Biola University in La Mirada, California, where she will pursue a degree in Communication Studies and take part in their Torrey Honors College.
