

WELCOME

to our New Board Members

Los Ojos de la Familia would like to give a warm welcome to these three standup members of our community, each of whom have graciously agreed to serve on our board.

Please take a moment to read just a little about each of these home-grown volunteers, who have a heart for giving back to the community which raised them.

Aaron Jaramillo

As vice president of business development for AQUILA, Aaron Jaramillo is responsible for strategic partnerships and transactions to accelerate growth for the company and its customers. Mr. Jaramillo works with external partners around the world to identify areas of collaboration, drive innovation, and help organizations keep their resources safe. In this capacity he also manages AQUILA's relationship with the cyber-security community and oversees strategic alliances through the company's distribution and reseller engagement program.

Prior to this role, Mr. Jaramillo served in leadership positions with Splunk, Xerox, NetApp, Presidio, and Presbyterian Healthcare, where he gained first-hand knowledge of the information security challenges faced by start-ups, large-scale enterprises, and government organizations. Before joining AQUILA, Mr. Jaramillo held various technical positions across engineering, sales, marketing and business development roles, with a primary focus on aligning infrastructure solutions with operational requirements.

A seven-year active duty U.S. Navy veteran, Mr. Jaramillo earned his bachelor's degree in IT Management from the University of Phoenix. Mr. Jaramillo believes in community outreach and is thrilled to be a part of an organization that can impact the lives of people in the community he is proud to call home. Mr. Jaramillo is a native New Mexican who grew up in Grants, but he has spent the majority of his adult life in Albuquerque with his wife of 27 years. Together they are the proud parents of three young adults.
