June 2016 Emergency Assistance

Christine Apodaca

Christine is a mother of two young boys, who has been the sole provider for her family, while her husband is disabled. Christine recently began chemotherapy for her own illness, which has drastically cut her hours at work. She goes as often as possible, even the day after chemotherapy (as is the case in this photograph), but they have fallen behind on some of their bills. We helped them with part of their rent and utilities. It was a pleasure to make the acquaintance of this cheerful and strong woman. Our sincere prayers and best wishes for the battle ahead, Christine!

Jenniver Sullivan

Jennifer is a single mother of two young ladies, who works full time to try and take care of her family in the best way she knows how. With no other income, she has been struggling to keep up with regular bills, while trying to give her children everything they need to succeed. We were happy to reach and give them a helping hand, by helping her to catch up on a couple of her utility bills. Keep working hard and keep smiling, Jennifer; you're doing a great job!
